Graeme attended a drama evening at Lancaster Grand theatre organised by the constabulary and the Police Cadets. Local school and college drama groups were given the topic of 'alcohol awareness' and given free reign to present a short play.

The six finalists presented their work to an almost packed out theatre. Thought provoking themes on the consequences of alcohol misuse were acted out. Bravado – daring to trespass on railway tracks – and being hit by a train, drink-driving, fighting and sexual assaults were tackled intelligently.

If a vehicle is suspected of being left in this manner please inform a member of the community police team. Vehicles left in an illegal manner will be dealt with accordingly.

The sessions fully adhere to the Citizens Advice Bureaux Aims and Principles.

The principles mean that all sessions are free, confidential, Independent and Impartial. (Anyone wishing to discuss personal issues can be referred directly to the Bureau .)

The role of the Financial Literacy Worker to anyone and has most likely happened to everyone at some point in their lives. This is because life changes can have a huge impact on our finances.

Session Content

Session content varies because each is tailored to the requirements of the group or individual and is discussed prior to the session (the time and date arranged by the group for their convenience). The length of each session is approximately 2 hours and is a 'whistle stop tour' of the main issues surrounding debt. A series of sessions can also be arranged, where more detailed information can be delivered. Sessions generally cover:-
